John C. Clark & Sons,
230 Dock Street,
Philadelphia.

To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Beaver County.

The petition of Frank Binninger, Respectfully represents, that he is a white free person and a native of Baden, Germany whence he emigrated to the United States of America, on or about the 27th day of June AD one thousand eight hundred and sixty eight, and arrived at New York City on or about the 22nd day of August of the same year, That in pursuance of an Act of Congress Entitled An Act to establish a uniform system of Naturalization, and to repeal the Acts heretofore passed on that subject, he made a declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States, before Joseph Brown Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County on the Ninth day of October AD one thousand eight hundred and seventy one, a certificate whereof is hereto annexed, That he has resided within the United States for more than five years and for more than one year in the State of Pennsylvania That he has never borne any hereditary title or been of any of the orders of nobility in the Kingdom from whence he came, and if any such should by any means descend to him he does hereby renounce the same, Your petitioner therefore prays the Court to admit him to become a citizen of the United States upon making the proofs required, and taking the oath prescribed by the Act of Congress and he will &c

Frank Binninger