To the honorable the judges of the Court of common Pleas of the County of Beaver & Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,

The petition of Robert Moffet a native of the kingdom of Ireland respectfully sheweth—

That your petitioner landed in the United States in the month of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one and has resided eight years last past in the County of Beaver in the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that he hath never borne any hereditary title, or been of any of the orders of nobility and if any such should by many unexpected descend to him, he doth absolutely and entirely renounce the same; that he hath never been heretofore prosecuted by any state, or been legally convicted of having joined the army of Great Britain during the late war; that your petitioner is desirous to become a citizen of the United States and to enjoy the benefit and protection of the Constitution and laws thereof. Your petitioner therefore prays [illegible] the adopted [illegible] his complying with [illegible] in such case made [illegible] you [illegible]

Robert Moffet

August 25. 1822

Robert Moffet being sworn in open court according to law, doth declare and say that the facts stated in the above Petition are true; that he was a resident in the United States prior to, and on the April 14, 1802, and has continued to reside within the same; and for more than one year last past has resided within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; that he will support the constitution of the United States, and that he doth absolutely and entirely renounce & abjure all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign prince, potentate, state or sovereignty whatsoever and particularly to the king of the united kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland
