To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas for the County of Beaver.

The petition of James Callavan a native of Ireland Respectfully Sheweth that he declared on oath before the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas for the County of Beaver on the 28th day of October A D 1852. that it was bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and to renounce forever all allegiance and fidelity to any Foreign Prince Potentate State or Sovereignty whatever and particularly to the Queen of England of whom he was at that time a Subject. that your petitioner has resided within the United States upwards of five years, and in the State of Pennsylvania one year both periods immediately preceding this his application to become a citizen of the United States and that he has never borne any hereditary title or been of any of the orders of nobility in his own or any other country. He therefore prays that on his making the proof and taking the oath prescribed by law he may be admitted a citizen of the United States of America. And he will ever pray &c James Sullivan

I James Callavan do Swear that the contents of my petition are true: that I will support the constitution of the United States and I now renounce and relinquish any title or order of nobility to which I am now or hereafter may be entitled: and I do absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince potentate State or Sovereignty whatever and particularly to the Queen of England of whom I was before a Subject

Sworn in open Court this 3rd day of June A D 1856

James Sullivan

Matthew S. Gray, Prothonotary
