To the Honourable Daniel Agnew President and his associate Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, of the County of Beaver,

The petition of Charles Siebke a native of Prussia, Respectfully Sheweth That he declared on oath before the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of said County on the fifth day of June A.D. 1854 that it was bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States and to renounce for ever, all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign Prince potentate, State or Sovereignty whatever, and particularly the King of Prussia of whome he was at that time a Subject. That your petitioner has resided within the United States upwards of five years, and in the State of Pennsylvania, one year, both periods being immediately preceding this his application to become a citizen of the United States, and that he never has borne any hereditary title, or been of any of the orders of Nobility in his own or any other Country,

He therefore prays your Honours that on making the proof and taking the oath prescribed by law he may be admitted a citizen of the United States

Attest,
J. H. Wilson.

Charles Siebke

Timothy B. White a citizen of the United States of America being duly affirmed according to law saith, that he knows and is well acquainted with Charles Siebke, the petitioner, that to his knowledge he has resided in the United States five years, and in the State of Pennsylvania one year, both periods immediately preceding his application to be a citizen that during the said period of five years last past he has behaved himself as a person of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of of the United States and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same, affirmed and subscribed in open con this fourth day of June 1856. M. S. May Pro

T. B. White