States of America in Congress assembled passed the 28th day of May Anno Domini 1824. he may be admitted to become a citizen of the United States;

And your petitioner, as in duty bound will pray &c — George Stephenson

James McCullough a citizen of the United States, being duly sworn doth depose and say, that the within named George Stephenson the petitioner now before the court, with whom the deponent is well acquainted, hath resided within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the United States three years next preceding his arriving at the age of 21. years, and has continued to reside therein untill the time of filing of the preceding petition; that including the three years of the Minority of the said George Stephenson he the said George Stephenson has resided within the United States five years and upwards; that, during the last three years thereof, it has been to the best of this deponents knowledge and belief, the bona fide intention of the said George Stephenson to become a citizen of the United States; and that during all that time he the said George Stephenson has behaved himself as a man of good moral character attached to the Principals of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and Happiness of the same

Sworn in open Court this 14. day of March 1851 — James his mark McCullough

John Collins Pro.

I George Stephenson the petitioner, now before the court, being duly sworn doth declare & say that the several facts set forth in the within petition, are, to the best of my knowledge and belief, just and true; that I will support the Constitution of the United States; that I do