Jacob Brown A citizen of the United States being duly sworn doth depose and say, that the foregoing named Philip Stitzel, the petitioner now before the Court with whom the deponent is well acquainted, hath resided within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the United States Three Years next preceding his arriving at the age of twenty one years, and has continued to reside therein untill the time of filing the preceding petition, that including the three years of his minority the said Philip Stitzel has resided within the United States five years and upwards; that during the last three years thereof it has been, to the best of his deponents knowledge and belief, the bona fide intention of the said Philip Stitzel to become a citizen of the United States and that during all that time he the said Philip Stitzel has behaved himself as a man of good moral character attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same

his
Jacob x Brown
mark

Sworn in Open Court
this 2 day of November Anno Domini 1840
Milton Lawrence

I Philip Stitzel. The petitioner now before the Court being duly sworn doth declare and say that the several facts set forth in the within petition, are, to the best of my knowledge and belief, just & true; that I will support the Constitution of the United States; that I do hereby renounce and relinquish any title or order of Nobility to which I am, or hereafter may be entitled and that I do absolutely and entirely renounce