John S. Hinans a citizen of the United States being duly sworn according to law that he knows and is well acquainted with James Wigly the petitioner. That to his knowledge he has resided in the United States five years and in the State of Pennsylvania one year both periods immediately preceding his application to be a citizen that during the said period of five years he has behaved as a person of good moral character attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same. Sworn in Open Court.

John Collins, Pro. [illegible] Hinans

I James Wigly do swear that the contents of my petition are true. That I will support the Constitution of the United States and I now renounce and relinquish any title or order of nobility to which I am now or may hereafter be entitled and I do renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince potentate State or sovereignty whatever and particularly to the Queen of England of whom I was a subject. Sworn in Open Court this 13th day of March 1854 James Wigly

John Collins, Pro.