To the honorable the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Beaver Pa.

The petition of John Edward Fleming a native of the Kingdom of Great Britain Ireland Respectfully Sheweth

That your petitioner landed in the United States in the month January A.D. 1819 at New York and has resided in the United States in the State of Pennsylvania in the counties of Allegheny and Westmoreland nearly six years that he hath never borne any hereditary titles, or [illegible] of any one of the orders of nobility and if any such by means unexpected descend to him he doth absolutely and entirely renounce the same that he hath never been heretofore proscribed by any State or been legally convicted of having joined the the army of Great Britain during the late war with Great Britain, that your petitioner is desirous of becoming a citizen of the United States & to enjoy the benefit and protection of the Constitution & laws thereof. Your petitioner therefore prays this honorable [illegible] to admit him to be a citizen of the United States [illegible] his complying with the requisites of the act of congress in such case made and provided And your petitioner will pray &c

January 10. 1825 — John E. Fleming

John Edward Fleming being sworn in open court deposes and saith that the facts above stated are just & true that he sailed from Greenock in Scotland and arrived as above stated and has continued to reside in the counties of Allegheny and Westmoreland ever since being more than five years resident in the State of Pennsylvania. that he will support the Constitution of the United States and that he doth absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all Allegiance and fidelity to every foreign prince potentate state or sovereignty and particularly to the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain & and Ireland of whom he was formerly subject.

Sworn and Subscribed before me in Open court 10 Jany 1825 John E. Fleming

John Clarke Pro.