A citizen of the United States, being duly sworn doth depose and say, that the within named Simon Geisler the petitioner now before the Court - with whom the deponent is well acquainted - hath resided within the limits, and under the Jurisdiction of the United States three years next preceding his arriving at the age of twenty one years - and has continued to reside therein until the time of filing of the preceding petition that including the three years of the Minority of the said Simon Geisler the said Simon Geisler has resided within the United States five years and upwards; that during the last three years thereof, it has been, to the best of this deponents knowledge and belief, the bona fide intention of the said Simon Geisler - to become a citizen of the United States; and that during all that time the said Simon Geisler has behaved himself as a man of good moral character attached to the principals of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same

Sworn and subscribed [redacted] in Open Court this 17 day of March 1845

R. L. Baker

I - Simon Geisler - the petitioner, now before the Court - being duly sworn doth declare and say, that the several facts set forth in the written petition, are, to the best of my knowledge and belief, just & true; that I will support the Constitution of the United States; that I do hereby renounce and relinquish any title or order of Nobility to which I am, or hereafter may be entitled to which I am, or hereafter may be entitled; and that I do absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign Prince - Potentate, State - and Sovereignty whatever and particularly to the King of Wurtenberg of whom I was before a subject

Sworn and subscribed before the Court this 17 day of March 1845

Simon Geisler